EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN

United States of America, No. 18-20754

Plaintiff, Hon. Victoria Roberts

v.

KEVIN HSIEH, Count 3: Coercion and Enticement
Defendant. of a Minor 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b)

Offenses:

Count 3: Coercion and Enticement of a Minor 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b)

Maximum Penalties:

Count 3: 10 years up to life
imprisonment

Maximum Fines:

Count 3: $250,000

Maximum Supervised Release:

Count 3: 5 years – up to life

Rule 11 Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure,
Defendant Kevin Hsieh and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Count of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count 3 of the Indictment, which charges: enticement of a minor, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422(b).

B. Elements of Offense

The elements of Count 3—enticement of a minor—are:

1. The Defendant knowingly used a facility of interstate commerce to induce or entice an individual under the age of 18 to engage in sexual activity;
2. The Defendant believed that such individual was under the age of 18; and
3. The Defendant could have been charged with a criminal offense for engaging in the specified sexual activity.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for Defendant's guilty plea:

Starting in or around 2011, MV-1 (DOB: February 1997) and Hsieh started talking on MySpace, a social media Internet application. MV-1 and Hsieh met multiple times from 2011 to December of 2014. Hsieh engaged in sexual intercourse with her on numerous occasions. During this same time period, on more than one occasion, Hsieh encouraged MV-1 to send him nude photographs of her vagina. MV-1 sent him several such photographs. The photographs were requested and sent using a facility of interstate commerce; i.e. the Internet. Hsieh also took pictures and videos of MV-1's vagina, of himself penetrating her vagina, and of him having MV-1 perform oral sex on him.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, the parties recommend that Defendant's guideline range is life imprisonment, as set forth on the attached worksheets. Defendant's advisory sentencing guideline range is life imprisonment, based on a total offense level of 43 and a criminal history category of I.

If the Court finds:

- a) that Defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or
- b) that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, Defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from his probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for his offense(s); or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than life imprisonment, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed upon range. But if the Court finds that Defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

C. Relevant Conduct

The relevant conduct in this case includes, but is not limited to, all the counts in the Indictment.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

The Court must impose a sentence of imprisonment on Count Three of at least ten years. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure

11(c)(1)(C), the parties agree that the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed 50 years' imprisonment. The Western District of Michigan U.S. Attorney's Office have agreed not to bring charges against Hsieh relating to his production of child pornography of MV-1 in exchange for his guilty plea in this case. If Hsieh withdraws his plea for any reason or later challenges it, then this agreement would not bar the Western District from bringing charges. Similarly, the detectives in Novi who investigated this case have agreed not to bring state charges against Hsieh related to Hsieh's conduct towards MV-1 from 2012 to 2018 in exchange for his guilty plea in this case. If Hsieh withdraws his plea for any reason or later challenges it, then this agreement would not bar Novi from bringing charges.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release follows the term of imprisonment. There is no agreement as to the term of supervised release. But the Court must impose a term of supervised release on Count 3 of no less than five years. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that result from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Pursuant to the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act of 2015, Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100 and an additional assessment of $5,000.00. See 18 U.S.C. § 3014.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

Restitution is mandatory in this case. The Court shall order restitution to every identifiable victim of Defendant's offense. 18 U.S.C. § 2259. The Defendant agrees that MV-1 is an identifiable victim of the offense. Defendant agrees to pay restitution in the amount of $75,000 to MV-1. MV-1 still maintains a right to request a larger amount of restitution from the Court, but Defendant agrees to pay a minimum of $75,000.

4. SORNA/Adam Walsh Act

Defendant understands that by pleading guilty in this case, he will be required to register as a sex offender, under both federal and state registration requirements. As a condition of his release from prison on supervised release in this case, Defendant will be obligated to promptly register under the federal sex offender registry. Defendant may also be required to register under the law of the state in which he resides, as well as any state where he has significant contacts (including any state where he resides, works, attends school or otherwise has significant contacts). Defendant further understands that he will be required to maintain and update his registration for at least twenty years, and potentially for the rest of his life.

5. Collateral Consequences of Conviction

Defendant understands that his conviction here may carry additional consequences under federal and state law, including the potential loss of the right to vote, right to carry a firearm, right to serve on a jury, and ability to hold certain licenses or to be employed in certain fields. Defendant further understands that, if he is not a native-born citizen of the United States, there may be adverse immigration consequences resulting from conviction. These include possible removal from the United States, denial of citizenship, denaturalization, denied admission to the United States in the future and other possible consequences. Defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the Court, can predict to a certainty the effect of defendant's conviction on any of these matters. Defendant nevertheless affirms that he chooses to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences or other collateral consequences of his conviction.

6. Padilla Waiver

Defendant acknowledges that he is not a citizen of the United States, and that his guilty plea in this case may affect or even foreclose his eligibility to remain in this country following the imposition of sentence herein. Defendant has discussed these matters with his attorney in this case, but he expressly agrees that his decision to plead guilty is in no way conditioned upon or affected by the advice he has been given regarding any potential immigration consequences of his conviction. Defendant further agrees that because his decision to plead guilty in this case is wholly independent of the immigration consequences of a conviction, defendant agrees that he will not seek to challenge his guilty plea in any later proceeding via collateral attack on any basis relating to the immigration consequences of his plea.

7. Forfeiture

As part of this agreement, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2253(a)(3) and/or 18 U.S.C. § 2428, Defendant agrees to forfeit his interest in the following property:

1. Any visual depiction described in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2251, 2251A, or 2252, 2252A, 2252B, or 2260, or any book, magazine, periodical, film, videotape, or other matter which contains any such visual depiction, which was produced, transported, mailed, shipped, or received in violation of these subsections;
2. Any property, real or personal, constituting or traceable to gross profits or other proceeds obtained as a result of violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2252A(a)(2) and/or 2422(b); and
3. Any property, real or personal, involved in the commission of violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2252A(a)(2) and/or 2422(b).

In entering into this agreement with respect to forfeiture, Defendant expressly waives his right to have a jury determine the forfeitability of his interest in the above-described property as provided by Rule 32.2(b)(4) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

In entering into this agreement with respect to forfeiture, Defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently waives any challenge to the above-described forfeiture based upon the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Defendant further waives the requirements of Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.2 and 43(a) regarding notice of the forfeiture in the charging instrument, announcement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment. Defendant acknowledges that he understands that the forfeiture of the above-described assets is part of the sentence that may be imposed in this case and waives any failure by the court to advise him of this, pursuant to Rule 11(b)(1)(J), at the time his guilty plea is accepted.

8. Use of Withdrawn Guilty Plea

If the Court allows the Defendant to withdraw his guilty plea for a "fair and just reason" pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(B), Defendant waives his rights under Fed. R. Evid. 410, and the government may use his guilty plea, any statement made under oath at the change-of-plea hearing, and the factual basis statement in this plea agreement, against him in any proceeding.

9. Other Charges

If the Court accepts this agreement, the government will dismiss any remaining charges in this case.

10. Each Party's Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B. Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw his guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than 50 years. This is the only reason for which Defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise Defendant that if he does not withdraw his guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Part 3.

11. Appeal Waiver

The Defendant waives any right he may have to appeal his conviction. If the Defendant's sentence does not exceed 50 years, the Defendant also waives any right he may have to appeal his sentence.

If the sentence imposed is within the guideline range as determined by Paragraph 2B, the government agrees not to appeal the sentence, but retains its right to appeal any sentence below that range. Nothing in this waiver shall be construed to bar a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, provided that the Defendant properly raises such claim by collateral review under 28 U.S.C. Section 2255.

12. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea or Vacation of Conviction

If Defendant is allowed to withdraw his guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against Defendant within six months after the date the order vacating

Defendant's conviction or allowing him to withdraw his guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, Defendant waives his right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

13. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

14. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to Defendant or to the attorney for the Defendant at any time before Defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if Defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against Defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

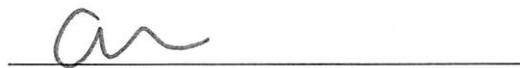

15. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 4:00 p.m. on August 21, 2019. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before Defendant pleads guilty.
